

CHEYENNE FRONTIER DAYS

MISS LADY-IN-WAITING APPLICATION

(Applications must be returned by Friday, August 19th by 4:00 PM)

The Cheyenne Frontier Days General Committee is pleased that you are interested in applying for Miss Lady-In-Waiting. If you are selected, you will have one of the most enjoyable and exciting years of your life. You will also have the opportunity to be selected the following year as Miss Frontier. Your reign will also be a very busy and hectic one.

Requirements:

1. Applicant must be a resident of Laramie County.
2. Applicant must be a high school graduate at time of application.
3. Horsemanship skills demonstration (Horse will be provided & riding pattern is provided)
Horsemanship will take place on Sunday, August 21st at 4:00 PM at the CFD arena.
In case of inclement weather, Barn 13 will be the alternate location.

Officially, you will be under the direction of the Indians Committee Chairman. You will be under the guidance of Miss Frontier, who will assist you in learning your role as a spokesperson for Cheyenne Frontier Days.

You will be asked to make many personal appearances, speaking at many, and to be interviewed for newspaper articles, radio, and television. Many of these will be overnight and you should be prepared to stay out-of-town for several days. Some will be without notice, but you will still be expected to handle yourself with poise and dignity; and always with a smile.

You will represent Cheyenne Frontier Days at rodeos as approved by the Cheyenne Frontier Days General Committee, such as the National Western Stock Show and the Greeley Independence Stampede. You will have speaking engagements with organizations throughout the reign. You will be interviewed by national and regional media. Your very best personal appearance is always a requirement as well as your ability to remain cool and calm in any situation.

Your purpose is to promote Cheyenne Frontier Days and the heritage of the Old West. To do this, you should prepare yourself by learning the history of the “Daddy of ‘em All” ® and by learning a great deal about rodeos in general, and something about today’s participants. You must be current on all activities of Cheyenne Frontier Days.

CHEYENNE FRONTIER DAYS

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The role of Cheyenne Frontier Days Royalty is to promote the “Daddy of ‘em All” ® through personal appearances and speaking engagements.

The purpose of these appearances is to promote the heritage of the Old West and Cheyenne Frontier Days.

The Indian Committee Chairman must approve all appearances.

Political appearances are not acceptable.

All personal appearances and those which result in newspaper pictures or television, require the Frontier Days Royalty to be on time, on their best behavior, and in proper western apparel.

Alcoholic beverages will not be consumed by Royalty at any official function.

An official of the Cheyenne Frontier Days Committee or its designee will accompany Miss Frontier and her Lady-in-Waiting at all appearances.

I am a resident of Laramie County, and as of this date of application have graduated from high school.

I understand that my selection as Lady-In-Waiting for Cheyenne Frontier Days is a one-year obligation, and I agree to adhere to the guidelines set-forth by the Cheyenne Frontier Days Committee. I also understand that if selected as Miss Frontier by the General Committee, there will be an additional one-year obligation.
