

Cheyenne Frontier Days Lady-in-Waiting Application

The Cheyenne Frontier Days General Committee is pleased that you are interested in applying for the role of Miss Lady-In-Waiting. If selected, you will embark on one of the most exciting and rewarding years of your life, with the opportunity to be named Miss Frontier the following year.

Eligibility Requirements

1. Applicant must be a resident of Laramie County.
2. Applicants must be a high school graduate at the time of application.
3. Applicants must participate in a horsemanship skills demonstration. (riding pattern on next page)
4. Applicants must provide own horse that is appropriate and approved by Cheyenne Frontier Days.
5. Applicants must be able to transport their own horse to events.

If selected, you will serve under the direction of the Indians Committee Chairman and be guided by the current Miss Frontier, who will help you prepare for your role as an official spokesperson for Cheyenne Frontier Days.

As Lady-In-Waiting, you will be expected to make numerous personal appearances, speak at public events, and participate in interviews for newspapers, radio, and television. Many of these engagements may require overnight travel, sometimes with little advance notice. In all situations, you are expected to represent Cheyenne Frontier Days with poise, dignity, professionalism, and a smile.

You will represent Cheyenne Frontier Days at various events approved by the General Committee, including prestigious rodeos such as the National Western Stock Show and the Greeley Independence Stampede. You will also have numerous speaking engagements with community and civic organizations, and media interviews at both the regional and national level. Maintaining your best personal appearance and the ability to remain gracious and composed under pressure is essential.

Your primary role is to promote Cheyenne Frontier Days and preserve the heritage of the Old West. To do this effectively, you should become well-versed in the history of the “Daddy of ‘em All”® and knowledgeable about the sport of rodeo and its modern-day participants. Staying informed about all current Cheyenne Frontier Days activities is essential.
